

Was Vincent present or not at the 7-Eleven store?

During the research for the documentary a lot of interviews have been recorded. Among them one of the lady from the 7-Eleven gas station. A part of Vincent's case was centred on the fact that he was allegedly present at the 7-Eleven store when the abduction of the Sanders twins was in progress. The 7-Eleven shop assistant has been found and has stated for the record that she remembers the girls but did not see Vincent.
